Louis Ingles Elected President Of Junior-Senior Confraternity

Louis Ingles was elected president of the Junior-Senior Confraternity for next year by the Junior Class on May 15, 1959. Donald Smith was elected President of the Freshman-Sophomore Confraternity on May 14.

Other Junior-Senior Confraternity officers elected were vice-president, Ronnie Artigues; secretary, Richard Kawas; treasurer, George Keitmeyer.

Other Freshman-Sophomore officers are Joe Gex, vice-president, Louis Rick, secretary, and Vi Vidrine, treasurer.

The election was run in the following manner: (1) Brother Reginald advised the entire Junior Class as to the requirements of the various positions. (2) The boys nominated their candidates, each required one proposal and one second by the members of the class. (3) Brother Reginald then listed the candidates for office and checked to see that they were each duly qualified to hold office. (4) Any candidate who did not meet the qualifications was asked to withdraw.

This year's officers were Ken Aucoin, president, Fred Bourgeois, vice-president; Paul Diaz, secretary; and Frank Peterson, treasurer.

Jubilarians Hilight Brothers' Retreat

By Dudley Stewart

During the week of May 31 to June 7 the campus will be host to the Brothers in the Southern Province, who will make their annual retreat here.

The high-light and climax of the retreat will be the Golden Jubilee celebration of two faculty members, Brother William and Brother Julius, as they celebrate their 50 years as Brothers of the Sacred Heart. Also, Brothers Edward and Damian will pronounce their final vows at the closing of the retreat.

Brother William has been on the faculty for 18 years and has served in every capacity on the campus from president to teacher.

Classical and modern languages have been an avocation with Brother William. And he has brought this love of foreign languages to the classroom where he has always endeavored to instill in his students a great love for the classics of every nation.

He entered the community in 1907 and pronounced his final vows in 1916. Through diligent study he prepared himself for classroom work and received an M. A. from Fordham University in 1943.

He served as director in Bay St. Louis; Muskogee, Oklahoma; and Mobile, Alabama.

"That they labor to qualify for anything," (Holy Rule) is the mot-

Senior Class Of 1959 Leaves Gift To School

by E. J. Babin

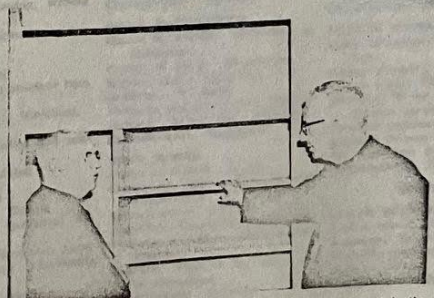
Seniors in the Class of '59 have left their Alma Mater a crucifix and two beautiful pictures of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Mother for every room of the new infirmary.

As in preceding years it is the custom here at SSC as in many high schools and colleges throughout the country, for the seniors to leave behind some little gift which might serve as a memory of them in years to come.

Brother Roland, the faculty, and the entire student body are proud that the Senior Class of '59 have so faithfully kept up this old custom. This year's gift takes its place among the various statues, pictures, etc., left behind by senior classes of preceding years.

At the opening of the new school year in September, along one of the walls in the new infirmary will be a bronze plaque which will let all who pass know that the Seniors of '59 left here at SSC a truly appreciated and worthwhile gift.

Brother Roland and the faculty also extend their good wishes to the seniors and their thanks for the wonderful gift which they left behind. We, the members of the ROCK-A-CHAW, are certain that the Seniors of '59 will not be forgotten at SSC.



Jubilarians Brother Julius and Brother William inspect a closet in the brothers' quarters division of the new infirmary.

Jay Zaniney's Orchestra Plays At Annual Junior-Senior Prom

by Robert Homes

Jay Zaniney's orchestra played the music at the Junior-Senior prom, held at the Markham Hotel in Gulfport.

At 8:00 o'clock on Friday night, May 15, the students and their dates arrived at the hotel and took the elevator up to the roof of the building, the site of the final big dance of the year.

In the misty atmosphere, the laughter and music combined to make a pleasant evening. Praise was high especially for the orchestra, which played many old favorites in a modern tempo, and put on hilarious antics to add to the entertainment.

Parents and relatives of the boys were present, at the invitation of SSC, as well as a few curious soghomores, who sneaked in disguised as waiters. The latter were highly acclaimed by the seniors and juniors for their expert job of waitering.

Pictures of the boys with their dates were taken during the dance by Tipery Studios, under the direction of Brother Damian.

The students, their parents, and the faculty were all delighted with the success of the prom.

Seniors Are Alumni As Of Last Sunday

Formal reception into the Alumni Association was held at a special dinner on May 24.

The 1959 senior class, executive committee of the Alumni Association, and Brothers were present at the banquet held at noon. After the banquet, the seniors stood and followed the ceremonial for admission, lead by Mr. Edmund Brignac, president of the Association.

"The purpose of the Alumni Association," says Brother Roland, "is to unite the graduates for the rest of their lives to the bonds and ideals which we, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, have tried to teach them here at St. Stanislaus."

Senior Authur S. Cagle Is Recipient Of Scholarship To Tulane University

Tulane University has offered Arthur S. Cagle a four year scholarship supplemented by a loan granted under the "National Defense Education Act" of 1958.

Arthur intends to major in economics and work part-time at a job on the campus offered him by the University.

Dr. Joseph E. Gordon, Associate Director of Admissions at Tulane, stated, "This award is based on your potentiality for taking full advantage of the educational opportunities offered at Tulane." Whether a student is qualified or not is determined by his high school record, his scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board, recommendations by school officials, evidence of outside activities indicating leadership and initiative, and evidence of good character as indicated by personal recommendations.

Arthur, a member of Senior A, is in the top quarter of the senior class and he received a certificate of merit for his scores on the CEEB tests.

New Infirmary Building Dedication October 20

October 20, 1959 is the date for the dedication of the new infirmary.

Although the infirmary has been completed and will be blessed during the summer it will not be formally dedicated until Homecoming Day in the fall of next year.

This large new three story building is made entirely of concrete and aluminum broken only by pastel panels around the sides. On the ground floor there will be classrooms and the ROCK-A-CHAW and WHITE CAP publication rooms. The second floor will be the all new modern infirmary and on the third, private sleeping quarters for the Brothers.

Congratulations Class Of '59

James Melerine Named Month's Leader

Senior Jimmy Melerine is this month's choice for the leader of the month award.

Jimmy has, in his three years as a boarder at SSC, been a member of the varisty basketball team two years, a varsity baseball player one year, and a member of the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart for all three.

In the recent ROCK-A-CHAW popularity poll Jimmy copped three of the classifications most popular, best looking, and best dressed.

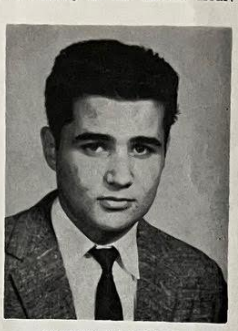
Jim was also honored at the all-sports banquet when, in addition to receiving two letters, he was presented the Most Improved award in basketball.

Jimmy's achievements haven't been all athletic, however, as he has received quite a few Honor Roll cards in the time he has spent here. He was also active on the yearbook staff this year, procuring a number of ads for Brother Jean.

In his first year Jim played junior team basketball.

Jim was Master of Ceremonies at the St. Pat's Day Talent Show and participated in other acts.

Jimmy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Melerine of New Orleans.



JAMES MELERINE

In Sympathy

On behalf of the student body the ROCK-A-CHAW expresses its deepest sympathy to Brother Athanasius on the death of his brother-in-law, William Loughlin of West New York, New Jersey.

To William Boyne on the loss of his mother, Mrs. William Boyne of New Orleans;

To A. J. Soulagnet on the death of his grandfather, Ferdinand Frank, Sr. of New Orleans;

And to the family of Brother Benedict Gaudin, S. C. who was on the SSC faculty from 1934 to 1939.

On The Downbeat

32 To Bolster Marching Band

by David Bishop

Last October, forty-two students from the fourth to the eighth grades enrolled in the beginners band. Of these, thirty-two have kept up their music classes and the group looks promising.

Brother Romuald is looking forward to promoting all of these beginners to the Marching Band next Fall. Of course, only those boys who make the grade will be admitted to the football band.

Next September, Brother Romuald will call for a new group of beginners. It is hoped that the response will be as generous as it was last October. There will be no charge for music lessons and the school will loan, free of charge, whatever instruments it has; first to apply will be the first to be given an instrument.

The band department is looking to these beginners to rebuild the Stanislaus Band and bring it back as the best high school band in its class. If every year twenty-five beginning students persevere in the band program, this goal can be achieved in two or three years. The loan of a school instrument free of charge is a privilege that no other school offers to its students. Parents who are interested in having their sons enroll in the beginners band next September, should contact the band director, Brother Romuald, any time during the vacation period.

The Month Of The Sacred Heart

June is synonymous with fun and frolic. It means vacation time—that so well deserved vacation after nine months of toil. But aside from fun we must remember that June is the month of the Sacred Heart.

The Sacred Heart, symbol of faith, wisdom, knowledge, temperance, and fortitude is a perfect example of what life should be.

June should not only mean vacation or fun time, but a time to honor the Sacred Heart and to give Him all that is His due. It's a time to share with Him all our doings and bring Him closer to our lives.

In this month our praise to the Sacred Heart should excel all other months because this is His month. Not only by going to Mass and receiving Holy Communion, but also by perfecting all our actions in their proper place at the proper time in unity with the actions of Catholics throughout the world for the honor of the Sacred Heart.

We must also remember that the Sacred Heart is the special patron of our school and confraternities and although there will be no one to urge us to attend Mass, we must all try to do our best in this respect.

Stagger your vacation fun with frequent trips to church for Mass and Holy Communion as well as frequent visits to the Blessed Sacrament.

Around the Campus

The new infirmary will have a large crucifixes and pictures of the Sacred Heart and of Mary, thanks to the generosity of the Seniors of '59.

The softball championship of the Big Study Hall is being played off under the direction of Brother Germain.

Brother Roland has organized work crews to prepare the finished infirmary building for moving.

The building is scheduled to be used during the annual retreat beginning on May 31.

A Message To Seniors

By A Senior

Seniors definitely have a different idea of school than undergraduates. They have something which cannot be explained to others—something which they see in their last year which should change their whole opinion of education.

I said it should. If they don't have a change of heart, they may have lost completely the purpose of education here at SSC. If they don't have a new picture of things, they have not emerged from the School of Character as men.

And that new picture: what is it? It is a complex picture; but the change can be clearly understood by seeing just one part of the picture. That part of the change is this: They should finally begin to see the value of St. Stanislaus. In that one statement, is contained all the meaning of their education, their growth into men. That sentence cannot be explained—not with a million words. It can only be known and felt. And those who have felt it are men.

It is not a little thing, or capable of a boy, to feel the love of our school, St. Stanislaus. I can only say to those who understand; to my Senior classmates: Congratulations! What a joy it is to know that you know and feel as I do as we leave our beloved alma mater.

Class Will Cont'd . . .

Tony Morse bequeaths to Brent Seward his ability to get campused and his Yiddish resourcefulness in hopes that he will benefit from it.

Frank Peterson leaves to Lester Haverty and John Kimball a souped-up slide rule and a three-quarter race, second hand physics lab book.

Robert Peterson leaves a full-race desk in room B to John Kimball.

Frank Rapier wills to Edmond Fahey his nickname that he may enjoy it, and also his disability to graduate.

Benigno Rodriguez leaves his desk in study hall to Richard Kawas.

Laurence Sauer wills his dreams during class to Kenny Pepperdene, already an artist in this matter.

Jules Schubert leaves to Brent Seward all his "lover's tactics" so he may become a great lover.

James Shippey wills to James Riordan his ability to loaf, be late, and talk, even though he already possess them in abundance.

Hugh Snell leaves to his brother, Norman, his square in the cafeteria so that he might put on the weight that he's been striving for.

Roman Solar leaves his cigarette-bumming tactics to Robert Van Peski, and his desk to Carlos Lam.

Dudley Stewart bequeaths to Danny Blanchard his treasured, pocket-size map of Pass Christian.

Louis Tassin leaves to Billy App the Candy Shop and all his freckles

August Thomas wills to Ronald Ladner his math ability and to Richard Morreale, his ability to procure last-minute dates.

A Letter . . .

Dear Editors:

I think it is my duty as President of the Senior Class to congratulate you and your staff on the fine work you have done in bringing the school news to the students.

The Rock-A-Chaw this year deserves a great deal of praise because of this fine job. The sport's reporter covered all of the games with excellence. He scored football, baseball and basketball events without skipping one.

The "Stax of Wax" was well appreciated by the entire student body. "Around the Campus" covered all happenings from intramural sports to campus constructions and cleanings. The contests, especially the recent "Who's Who", were enjoyed by all and informed many of little-known nicknames of baseball's star players.

On the whole your paper was appreciated by the entire group and we wish to thank you for your fine job.

Yours sincerely,
Kenneth Aucoin
Senior Class President
